

E111 – Paired Poems

Name: _____

“Sympathy” and “Caged Bird”

Both of these poems deal with the symbol of a caged bird. Before you read them, write down words and images and emotions that come to mind when you hear or read the words “caged bird.”

IMAGES:

WORDS:

EMOTIONS:

Next, read each poem, and as you do, pay attention to DICTION and underline any words that you feel create strong feeling, emotions, and reactions.

When you have done this, complete the chart below:

	“Sympathy” by Dunbar	“Caged Bird” by Maya Angelou
CAGED BIRD – TEXTUAL SUPPORT words, phrases, actions, emotions of the caged bird in each poem  (bullet points are fine)		